2 Product range/the company's services, planned exhibits and topics

This information is destined solely for internal use by the organizers. It will not be published.

3 Please note the following information:

- Co-exhibitors are defined as exhibitors who appear at a booth of a main exhibitor with their own staff, products and services, but are not the main focus of the booth presentation. This also includes consolidated companies and subsidiaries.
It is mandatory that the fascia board has only the name of the exhibitor and not of the co-exhibitor. It can not be shared or divided.
The co-exhibitor can only allocate its products and staff into the main exhibitor's booth and can also place its logo inside the booth but never outside nor on the fascia board.
- The main exhibitor confirms that the co-exhibitor is represented at the booth by his own personnel.
- The assignment of exhibitor space to a third party, either in part or as a whole, must be approved by the organizers.
- Approval by the organizer of subleased space to a co-exhibitor, a co-exhibiting fee of €150 + tax will be applied to the invoice of the main exhibitor subleasing the space.
- Services for the co-exhibitor must be booked by and will be charged to the main exhibitor. The main exhibitor is responsible for providing appropriate information about its co-exhibitor(s) within an appropriate timeframe with respect to the services available to be booked.
- Every co-exhibitor will be listed in the official Event Guide (provided the application is made by October 2, 2024) and on the website.
- The main exhibitor shall ensure that all third parties permitted to use, either entirely or partially, the subleased exhibition space, fully comply with the obligations stipulated in the main exhibitor contract. In particular, the main exhibitor has to inform any co-exhibitors of the conditions of participation and technical guidelines and shall ensure that the co-exhibitors are committed to respecting these conditions and guidelines.
- Contractual partner of the exhibitor concerning the co-exhibitor participation: Solar Promotion International GmbH, Kiehnlestrasse 16, 75172 Pforzheim, Germany.
